Employees choose options from our varied menu to meet their dietary requirements

With a dedicated portal for your business, your staff can login and order their home delivery boxes full of chef-prepared, nutritious and delicious food. As a result, we'll help you boost staff health and wellbeing as well as their productivity and morale.

You can either subsidise your staff's home delivery boxes or pay for them in advance. Your staff can then plan ahead or order online for delivery by 12 noon the next day.

Why not order for a virtual team meeting? Whatever your staff lunch needs, give us a call and we can help.
